General Note

The following symbols and conventions are used throughout this bulletin:

- (1) n.a : not available
- (2) - - : nil or less than half the final digit shown
- (3) . . . : not comparable or not fixed
- (4) (d) : discontinuity in the series; this sign will usually be accompanied by an explanatory note in the back section of the bulletin.
- (5) (P) : provisional data

Users should also note that:

We have made some changes in presentation and in the definitions of the data on the banking system. These changes are designed to provide users with more detailed information and more comprehensive definitions for analysis and policy making.

We have added new tables, and some additional columns to existing tables, to provide users with disaggregated information in the format used by our economists. This should help users to understand the terms and concepts used in the Research Department's analysis of the banking system.

Work continues on improving our definitions and presentation.

Tables affected are: Section B: Tables 3 and 4.
Section C: Table 2.
Section H: Table 1.

- (a) Owing to rounding of figures, the sum of separate items will sometimes differ in the final digit from the total shown.
- (b) Data in the tables are subject to revision from time to time as more current information becomes available.
- (c) Tables B1-B23. As of April 1, 1978, the Barbados Savings Bank assumed commercial banking functions and was incorporated into the Barbados National Bank as its Commercial Division. Its accounts are consolidated with commercial banks as from the end of April.
Table B21. This table has been adjusted to include the foreign reserve requirement of the commercial banks.

Tables D1-D2. The Barbados National Bank, Trust Division was established in October 1980. Its accounts are consolidated with trust companies as from the end of May 1981.

New tables D3, D4 and D5 have been included while D6, D7 and D8 (Barbados Development Bank tables) have been replaced with the National Insurance tables.
- (d) Tables B2, B5, B6, B12, C2, G9, H1. Following the closure of the local branch of the Bank of Chicago their loans to Government totalling $10.9 million, which were funded from external sources, have been transferred to an overseas branch. As a result, commercial banks' foreign liabilities and domestic credit to Government decreased, while Government's foreign debt increased by a similar magnitude.
- (e) The Index of Industrial Production tables with base 1971=100 have been discontinued and the new Index 1994=100 has been included.

Note: Effective March 15, 1994 the Central Bank replaced the Minimum Savings Deposit Rate with the Minimum Deposit Rate (applying to all interest – bearing deposits).

* Note that these are indicative rates

Table 2: Comparative Treasury Bill Rates and Bank Rates

Treasury Bill Rates for the U.K., U.S.A. and Canada are the average discount rates on three-month Treasury Bills at the last tender in each month: the rates for Barbados, Guyana, Jamaica and Trinidad and Tobago, are the average rates quoted on the date of issue of three-month bills for the appropriate month. The distinction arises because in the former case there are several tenders per month whereas for CARICOM territories there is usually only one.

Bank rates (minimum lending rate in the case of the U.K.) are those obtained at the end of the month in all cases.

Securities

Tables 1-3: Government of Barbados Treasury Bills, Debentures and Savings Bonds

All securities are given at nominal value and may vary from those shown in the balance sheets of some institutional holders who report these securities at cost.

Table 1: Government of Barbados Treasury Bills

Effective January, 2005, the annual and quarterly values for the amount applied for and the amount allotted were revised to reflect accumulated values. Also monthly totals are included. The average discount rates now represent the weighted average for the period monthly, quarterly and annual.

Prior to December 1973, this item represents bills held by the E.C.C.A; as of December 1973, the holdings are those of the Central Bank,

Commercial Banks

The difference between the figures shown here and in section B Table 1 arises because of different bases of valuation.

Foreign Trade - International Payments

Table 1: International Reserves

This table has been re-arranged to incorporate sinking funds for foreign debt into foreign assets of the Monetary Authority.

Central Bank

Foreign Assets

The figures to November 1973 represent that portion of the foreign exchange reserves of the East Caribbean Currency Authority which was imputed to Barbados. In December 1974 all these assets, with the exception of the General Account, were transferred to the Central Bank.

Total Sinking Funds (Foreign)

Sums set aside for the redemption of domestic and foreign debt and invested in foreign securities. These reserves are available for balance of payments purposes since the redemption of domestic debt does not require the use of foreign exchange.

Other Foreign Securities

Commercial Banks Net Foreign Assets - See note to Table B3

Other Public Bodies

Table 2: BDS$ Par/Central Rate For Selected Currencies and the SDR -End of Period

The par rate is the rate at which one currency is fixed in terms of another. The system of par values was abandoned on August 15, 1971, when the official gold convertibility of the U.S. dollar was suspended. The system of floating exchange rates now determined the middle market rates at which official transactions take place.

The par value of the BDS dollar was fixed in sterling at the rate of ,1 to BDS$4.80 until July 5, 1975, when it was linked to the U.S. dollar at a par value of US$1 to BDS$2. Prior to July 5, 1975, the BDS dollar also had a par value in terms of all currencies linked to sterling and after that date a par value in terms of currencies linked to the dollar. After July 5, the UK/BDS$ rate was calculated from the 1.00 p.m. ,/US$ New York closing rate.

The US$/BDS$ rate from 1952-1973 is the cross rate between the ,/US$ published in the International Financial Statistics (I.F.S.) and the ,/BDS$ rate. Rates officially employed by the Central Bank are used in calculations from January 1974 onwards. These are as follows: from January to March 1974 the ,/US$ 3.00 p.m. London closing rate and from April 1974 to June 1975 the ,/US$ 1.00 p.m. New York closing rate.

The CAN$/BDS$ rate from 1966 -73 is the cross rate between the ,/CAN$ supplied by the IMF Bureau of Statistics and the ,/BDS$ rate. From January to March 1974 it was calculated through the ,/CAN$ 3.00 p.m. London closing rate; and April 1974 to June 1975 through the 1.00 p.m. New York ,/CAN$ closing rate. After July 1975 the CAN$/BDS$ rate was determined by the US$/Can$ 1.00 p.m. closing rate from the same source.

Prior to September 8, 1969, the Jamaican currency unit was the Jamaican pound (J) which was equal to the pound sterling or to BDS $4.80. The J$ introduced in 1969, was at the rate of J$1 to J$2 to J$1 to BDS$2.40. This remained unchanged until the end of 1972. On January 16, 1973, the J$ was fixed in terms of the US$ at the rate of J$1 to US$1.1 0 and the J$/BDS$ rate was determined through the ,/J$ rate supplied by the Bank of Jamaica until the BDS$ was also fixed to the US$ in 1975.

On April 22, 1977, Jamaica adopted a dual exchange rate system. There was a "basic" rate of J$/BDS$2.20 and a "special" rate which is the one quoted in tables H2 and H3, of J$/BDS$1.60. The "basic" rate was applied to:-

- (a) payments for imports of basic foods, petroleum and petroleum products, essential drugs. Fertilizers and animal feeds;
- (b) receipts and payments on Government account; and,
- (c) receipts and payments relating to the mining sector.

All other transactions were at the special rate.

On October 21, 1977, a new special rate of J$/BDS$1.5625 became effective.

Effective January 13, 1978, Jamaica adopted new "basic" and "special" rates. The new basic rate was J$/BDS$1.9048 and the new special rate was J$/BDS$1.4815.

With effect from May 9, 1978, Jamaica abolished the dual exchange rate system and announced a new central rate of J$/BDS$1.2903. At that time, it was also announced that the agreement with the IMF on the use of resources from the Extended Fund Facility included monthly revaluations of the Jamaican dollar. These series of devaluations terminated in May 1979.

On January 10, 1983, the Bank of Jamaica introduced a dual exchange rate system. The official rate of exchange remained at J$1. 78 = US$1.00 and a formal parallel market was established. The parallel market rates were determined by commercial banks on the basis of demand and supply.

In addition to this rate, a special CARICOM rate of J$2.25 = US$1.00 was introduced on May 18, 1983. On November 24, 1983 the Government of Jamaica unified the exchange rate system, authorising the Bank of Jamaica to advise the official U.S. dollar value of the Jamaican currency on a fortnightly basis. For the first fortnight, November 24 to December 14, 1983 the settlement rate was BDS$1.00 to J$1.5625.

As of May 1984, Jamaica's exchange rate was determined by auction. Twice every week the Bank of Jamaica entertained bids for the available foreign exchange from commercial banks and the public. The rate was fixed at the average of all the bids, until the next auction.

Effective October 25, 1989 the auction took place once a week. As of November 1, 1989, the auction mechanism was suspended.

With the introduction of the new interbank foreign exchange system on September 17, 1990, each commercial bank sets its own exchange rate. For official purposes, the rate is calculated as the weighted average of commercial banks selling rates.

The TT$ and the EC$ were equal in value to the BDS$ until the latter was tied to the US$. After July 5, the BDS$/TT$, the BDS$/EC$ rates were determined by the BDS$/US$ rate as calculated above. On May 28, 1976, the TT$ was tied to the US$ at the rate of US$1.00 to TT$2.40. On July 7, 1976, the EC$ was tied to the US$ at the rate of US$1.00 to EC$2.70.

On December 18, 1985 the rate at which the TT$ was tied to the US$ was changed to US$1.00 to TT$3.60. On August 17, 1988 the rate at which the TT$ was tied to the US$ was changed to US$1.00 to TT$4.25.

The G$ was equal in value to the BDS$ until December 22, 1971, when the former was devalued. Thereafter, it remained fixed to the pound sterling until October 9, 1975, when it was linked to the US$ at the rate of US$1 to G$2.55. Between July 5 and October 9, the BDS$/G$ rate was calculated on the same basis as the TT$/BDS$ rate. It was announced that from June 2, 1981, the G$ exchange was to be determined by movements in the rates of selected currencies which comprised a composite basket. The initial currencies selected for the basket were US$, Stg, OM, TT$ and the Japanese Yen. The G$ exchange rate was fixed at US$1.00 to G$3.00. The US$ continued to be Guyana's intervention currency. From January 11, 1984, the composite basket of currencies used to determine the Guyana dollar (G$) was changed to Stg., OM, French franc, Netherlands guilder and the Japanese yen. Initially the Guyana dollar exchange rate was fixed at US$1.00 to G$3.75.

Although the Guyana Dollar is pegged to a basket of currencies, it has been adjusted, from time to time, to maintain a certain level vis-a-vis the U.S dollar. From October 1984 until January 1987, the rate was maintained in the range of G$4.15 to G$4.40 per U.S. dollar.

Effective January 19, 1987, the Guyana dollar was devalued to G$1 0.00 per US$1.00. On February 1, 1987 a secondary foreign exchange window was opened at commercial banks operation at G$21 per US$1.00 for non-official transactions. Effective April 3, 1989, the Guyana dollar was devalued moving the central rate to G$33.00 to US$1.00. All other rates were abolished. As of June 15, 1990, the rate for the Guyana dollar was fixed at US$1.00 = G$60.00. Effective June 25, 1990 the rate was changed to US$1.00 = G$65.00, then on July 30, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$70.00, August 27, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$75.00, September 3, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$81.50, September 10, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$83.50, October 1, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$87.00, October 15, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$89.00, October 29, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$98.00, November 26, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$91.00 and December 3, 1990, to US$1.00 = G$98.00.

With effect from February 21, 1991, a floating rate was adopted. Up to September 30, 1991, the rate was calculated weekly based on a weighted average of the free market rate of the previous week covering the transactions of the top ten licensed dealers. Since October 1, 1991, the calculation is on a daily basis. However the coverage has been revised to include a weighted average of the transactions of the three largest dealers.

The Free market rate (Cambio), which was introduced on March 17, 1990, replaced the Parallel Market rate. The free market buying (selling) rate is derived as an unweighted daily average purchase (sales) rate of all licensed foreign exchange dealers for the month. The mid-rate is derived as a simple arithmetic mean of the free market buying and selling rates.

The SDR/BDS$ rate is the cross rate between the SDR/US$ rate and the US$/BDS$. Prior to December 1971, the SDR was valued at the par value of the U.S. dollar, ie., 1 SDR = US$1.

Table 3: BDS$ Exchange Rate for Selected Currencies and the SDR-Average for Period.

The monthly exchange rate is the average of the daily rates for the period. The quarterly rates are the averages for three months and the annual rate is an average for the twelve-month period January to December.

Table 4: Visible Trade

Trade data for twelve-month period does not necessarily add up to annual data, because of changes and corrections which are made quarterly and annually.

Total exports for 1983 does not agree with data from Barbados Statistical Service because of evaluation adjustments.

Retained imports are negative when re-exports exceed imports. This occurs especially for fuels since bunker and aviation fuel are usually imported once every three months and stored for re-export.

Capital Goods

Up to 1978, machinery included electrical components. From 1979 a separate head for electrical components appears under "Intermediate Goods". From 1982 dental and optical appliances and photographic equipment appear under "Capital Goods". All items under construction materials, except heating and plumbing materials, have been transferred to "Intermediate Goods".

Section I

General Statistics

Table 1: Retail Price Index – End of Period

The Retail Prices Index is prepared by the Barbados Statistical Service. It is designed to measure price changes in the typical basket of goods and services purchased by a household.

A new Index of Retail Prices with base of March 1980 replaced the old index, which was based on October 1965. October 1979 was the first month from which data was available for both indexes; and data prior to October 1979 was obtained by multiplying All Items of the old index by the ratio 0.2126, i.e.,

$$\frac{\text{October 1979 (New Index)}}{\text{October 1979 (Old Index)}}$$

Effective July 1995, the B.S.S. ceased production of the 1980 base year Retail Index. This has been replaced by a new index with a 1994 base year. May 1994 was the first month from which data was available for both indexes; and data prior to May 1994 was obtained by multiplying All Items of the old index by the ratio 0.4898, i.e.,

$$\frac{\text{May 1994 (New Index)}}{\text{May 1994 (Old Index)}}$$

The new index is representative of the consumption patterns of private households with disposable income of $3,500 or less per month compared with $1,999 for the old index. 226 items of goods and services are covered in the new index as against 168 items previously.

A new index of Retail Prices with base of July 2001 replaced the old index, which was based on May 1994. July .2001 was the first month the data was available in both indexes, and data prior to July 2001 may be obtained by multiplying all Items of the old index by the ratio .8824, ie,:

July 2001 (New Index)
July 2001 (Old Index)

The current series covers the whole range of commodities and service that are consumed by private non-institutional households in the island, in the lower and middle-income groups. The items in the index remained the same but the sample of goods and services consists of 340 items as compared with 226 items in the previous index.

The Inflation Rate is calculated on the twelve month moving average.

Table 2: Retail Price Index - Averages For Period

The annual Retail Price Index is an average for the twelve-month period January to December. The quarterly figures are the averages for three months.

The Retail Price Index was revised from July 2001 with a new base period of July 2001 =100, instead of May 1994 = 100.

Table 3: Index of Industrial Production - End for Period

Other Manufacturing Industries

Includes other non-metallic products, printing group, fabricated metal products, electrical machinery and transport equipment.

The annual index is an average for the twelve-month period January to December.

Data for Mining & Quarrying and Beverages & Tobacco has been revised from 1990.
